Use your fine motor skills to mark, make, write or create letters in different ways. Use different materials, such as pencils, playdough, flour or glitter!

Can you write a word or sentence as a challenge?

Personal, Social and Emotional Development

Draw a picture of the different feelings you feel. When have you felt happy? When have you felt excited? When have you felt sad? Talk to an adult at home about your feelings.

Communication & Language

Practise using the word 'because' in a sentence.

For example:

- I like pizza because
- I felt happy today because
- My favourite toy is _____ because
- I like school because _____
- I need to wear my coat because

Literacy

This half term we are reading the book: "Little Red Riding Hood" & "The Three Billy Goats Gruff".

- Create your own booklet at home and draw pictures to show what happens in the story. Can you challenge yourself to write any words?
- Write a letter to one of the characters and ask them a question about themselves.

Reception Spring Homework

Traditional Tales

Maths

- Create your own number line to 10. Choose a number from your number line and collect this many objects. Take one away, how many do you have now? Practise adding and taking away objects from your toy collection!
- Play the Top marks game below to practise recalling number bonds to 10.

- Help your family in the kitchen and make some cakes or biscuits. Can you follow a recipe and use weighing scales to weigh your ingredients?

Understanding the World

Science experiment! What do you think will happen if you put water into the freezer? Fill a plastic cup or bowl with water and see what happens when you leave it in the freezer overnight.

Draw a picture of what has happened.

Expressive Arts & Design

In the story Little Red Riding Hood, Grandma lived in a cottage. Can you create a cottage, perhaps you could use recycled junk box materials? Could you add to your junk model by painting it or attaching materials using sellotape?

Paint or draw the characters from the story to go with your cottage. How could you make the wolf furry? Could you make a basket for Little Red Riding Hood?
